HPD Asking for Help from the Community

March 5, 2011

The Harrisonburg Police Department is asking for help from the community.

Police are currently looking for a man, whose family has not heard from him since Thursday morning.

Arthur Gregory Brown, 50, of Harrisonburg is described as a white male, six feet three inches tall, approximately 230 pounds, green eyes, and grey hair. He also has a small scar on the left side, near his hairline.

Mr. Brown was last known to be in his vehicle, which is a grey 2007 four-door Honda Accord with Virginia tags SO4CHN8.

HPD believes Mr. Brown was last in the company of Ali Abid, 49, of Weyers Cave and police have not been able to contact either individual throughout the investigation.

The disappearance of Mr. Brown is suspicious and he could possibly be in Weyers Cave, Harrisonburg, or in the area of Dulles Airport.

Anyone with information is asked to call HPD's non-emergency call for service number at 540-434-4436 or Crime Solvers at 540-574-5050.
